We would like to take this opportunity to thank our many relatives, friends, neighbors and co-workers for their kindness shown to us during the illness and death of my husband Edwin H. (Cubby) Carter. Also for flowers, food, money, cards, visits and phone calls. A special thanks to all the pastors for their time and services. May God bless each of you.

Inez, Kim and Tammy
17/3-20-1tp

I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to everyone, for all acts of kindness shown me during and since, the death of my dear beloved husband Clarence Wayland Harris. And special thanks to preacher Thomas Boggs and the Appomattox Rescue Squad for help given at a time most urgently needed. Also to the Piney Ridge and Pamplin United Methodist Churches for their thoughtfulness and concern.

The prayers, flowers, food, cards, visits, phone calls and donations to the rescue squad, from family, relatives and friends, and God's tender loving care, helped me to bear the sorrow of my enormous loss.

Our home can never be the same again, but I'm thankful for the time we had together, and will always cherish the sweet and loving memories locked in my heart. And there are those and sadly miss him much more than any words can say.

May God richly bless each of you.

His wife,
Virginia D. Harris
